

NOAA's 'Teachers on the Estuary' Estuaries 101 July 23-24, 2019 Hobcaw Barony, Georgetown, SC

Join North Inlet-Winyah Bay Reserve and South Carolina Sea Grant Consortium marine educators for a professional development workshop featuring children's author Kevin Kurtz and his book A Day in a Forested Wetland and highlighting NOAA's Estuaries 101 Curriculum

Requirements:

- Open to K-5th grade English Language Arts (ELA) & Science teachers*, pre-service teachers, and non-formal educators
- Commitment to a 2 day workshop, plus workshop exit and 6 month follow up surveys
- Must be able to tolerate physical activity outdoors (summer temperatures, insects)
- *Fifteen (15) hours Continuing Education Units (CEUs) available

Registration: $50 per person (nonrefundable)

- Includes meals, snacks, supplies, lesson plans, and workshop transportation
- Standards-based activities on coastal ecosystems, habitats and organisms
- Kayak trip to North Inlet estuary included in registration
- Overnight lodging in on site dorms available for an additional fee

REGISTER HERE: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/2019Estuaries101NIWB>

