

Shorebird Stewardship Workshop

Hobcaw Barony, Wednesday, April 18th, 2018

John Heidecker/Audubon Photography Awards 2012

Do you...

- ✕ Care about shorebirds?
- ✕ Like spending time on the beach?
- ✕ Want to help to protect our coastal birds?

Audubon Shorebird Steward Training

9 AM to Noon

Be an Audubon Shorebird Steward this spring and summer to educate beach goers about how to share the beach with imperiled nesting & resting coastal birds on a beach near you.

Bird Identification Basics and Field Practice

12:30 to 3 PM

Learn the basics of bird identification and have the opportunity to brush up on your ID skills in the field at North Inlet.

Free workshop, lunch provided.
Registration is required, space is limited.
